

Nathaniel Pierce Bio

The Rev. Nathaniel Pierce has served parishes in California, Idaho, Massachusetts, and the Diocese of Easton, Maryland. He is currently the Priest-in-Charge of St. Paul's, Trappe, the Ecumenical Officer, and the Bishop's Chaplain for Health Care Institutions. For the past four years he has served as the Province III ordained representative to the Executive Council of DFMS where he was assigned to the Joint Standing Committee on World Mission. During his tenure as our EC representative, he has played an active and indispensable role in reshaping and enhancing the ministry of our Province.